Hospice Staff Nurse Cheryl, RN, CHPN, has been honored with the North Oaks Nurse Excellence Award for August 2009.

Cheryl began her career at North Oaks in November 2008 in her current position.

“Cheryl exemplifies the concept of hospice. She is highly skilled in pain and symptom management, enabling her patients to function as comfortably and independently as possible,” shares Hospice Director Joyce O’Brian.

A native of New Jersey, Cheryl currently resides in the Mandeville area with her husband Gene and four children: Kenneth, Dustin, Janelle and Gene III.

In her spare time, she enjoys gardening, fishing and watching and attending football games, especially for the New Orleans Saints and New York Giants. She also is a member of First Baptist Church in Covington.

“I strive to enhance our patients’ experience by caring and comforting them, as well as educating their families and empowering them to provide care for their loved ones.”
