

nurse excellence

Telemetry Unit Charge Nurse Lindsey, RN, has been honored with the North Oaks Nurse Excellence award for April 2007.

Lindsey graduated as Valedictorian from Doyle High School in 1999 and earned her bachelor's degree in Nursing from Southeastern Louisiana University in 2003. She began her career with North Oaks that same year as a Staff RN on the Telemetry Unit.

Telemetry Unit Director Nancy Turnage, RN, shares, "Lindsey exhibits excellent clinical, motivational and communication skills. As a charge nurse, she makes excellent decisions and works hard to assure patient safety and flow on the Telemetry Unit. Lindsey has been described by patients and their families as exceptional, extraordinary and outstanding."

Lindsey is a native of the town of Livingston where she currently resides with her husband Brian. Lindsey and Brian are expecting their first child, a boy, in October. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, cooking, shopping and always doing for others.

"It brings me great joy and satisfaction to help bring a smile to the face of my patients. Each and every day I care for our patients, I work hard to assure them that they can depend on me to bring them comfort."
