

nurse excellence

Case Management Coordinator Gwen, RN, has been honored with the North Oaks Nurse Excellence award for March 2008.

Gwen earned an associate's degree in Nursing from Southwest Mississippi Community College. She began her career with North Oaks in August 1999 as an Emergency Services Staff Nurse.

Case Management Director Sherri Hayes, RN, shares, "Gwen is the embodiment of a team player. She truly cares deeply for our patients and our staff. There is never any doubt where her loyalties lie. The standard of professionalism that she sets is a beacon for all to measure their own performance. North Oaks Health System is a better place because of her hard work and dedication."

Gwen is a native of New Orleans and currently resides in Hammond. She has two married children—Eric and Erin—and one grandchild, Haley. In her time off, she enjoys yardwork and spending time with her granddaughter.

"I like finding ways to touch the lives of our patients so they know that no matter how much North Oaks Health System grows, they will always receive that personal touch."
