

nurse excellence

Surgery Unit Nurse Heidi, RN, has been honored with the North Oaks Nurse Excellence award for October 2007.

Heidi earned her bachelor's degree in nursing in 2002 from Southeastern Louisiana University. She began her career with North Oaks in June 2002 in her current position.

Surgical Services Director Terri Lewis, RN, shares, "Heidi handles her duties with a positive, professional attitude and is well respected by all staff. She serves as a valuable resource and provides a strong sense of support for the staff."

Heidi is a native of Ponchatoula where she currently resides with her husband Corey and their two children: Ava, 3; and Noah, 8 months. The family attends St. Joseph Catholic Church. She enjoys spending time with family and friends and shopping for bargains.

"Caring for my patients and providing them with a pleasant experience and positive outcome brings me great job satisfaction."

- Heidi, RN

www.northoaks.org
Hammond, LA